

THE WRANGELL SENTINEL

VOL. XVIII. NO. 27

WRANGELL, ALASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 26 1919

PRICE TEN CENTS

Cable News

WEIMAR — Dr. Haniel, the delegate to sign treaty, telegraphed his resignation rather than sign. Herman Muller, the new foreign minister, has been appointed president of the peace commission and will likely sign Friday or Saturday. Ebert declares that he will resign soon as the treaty is signed. Leaders in the government are perplexed over his successor.

LONDON — Germany having agreed to sign the peace treaty, the final preparations are being made for flight to America of the gigantic dirigible R. V. 4.

BERLIN — The Berlin Vorwaerts, the Majority Socialist organ today declared the peace treaty as scrap paper.

PARIS — The exact hour of signing is still unknown though the belief is that it is to be at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon or Saturday. If heads of Allied powers in Paris do not hear from Weimar very soon regarding German delegation for signing peace treaty an ultimatum will be sent to the German government according to the Paris office of the Reuters Limited. The ultimatum will demand an appointment of plenipotentiaries within a certain number of hours.

BERLIN — The Bolshevik foreign minister, M. Tchitcheran, sent a wireless message from Moscow today to the German working people in which he says: "In this grave hour in which the German working masses are undergoing the terrific trials under the blows of the victorious imperialism, the revolutionary workers and peasants of Russia send their fraternal greetings and expression of sympathy. That Imperialism of intent has beaten its opponent into dust which now celebrates victory fete which no doubt will be brief in duration of unheard of robbery and slavery. That is what so-called peace treaty means for the German working people, forced upon them with shameless, brazenness by the inhuman victors."

PARIS — Frederick Wilhelm Hohenzollern has escaped from Holland and made his way into Germany. News of his escape and that of the ex-Crown Prince has caused considerable stir in peace conference circles. While it is not felt that he is a figure around which reactionaries and monarchists would gather in a body, nevertheless his act is regarded as an event of considerable importance.

PARIS — Efforts are being made today to arrange for signing treaty at three o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Council of Three is apparently satisfied with the semi-official assurance that the Germans will be on hand.

PARIS — The Council of Four has sent a note to Germany protesting against the sinking of the German fleet and against the burning of French battle flags in Berlin, so an official announcement said.

COPENHAGEN — Serious rioting occurred in Hamburg Tuesday when mobs attacked food preserving factories. The War Provision Department also was attacked and its offices wrecked. The mob tried to disarm troops which were marching through the streets and the latter opened fire, a number of persons being killed.

A call is extended for every one to attend a community singing at 7:30 next Monday evening in Redmen's Hall for the purpose of rehearsing patriotic songs for the Fourth.

Program Committee.

SEATTLE — Lieutenant Emil E. Hurja, former secretary to the late Charles Sulzer, delegate to Alaska, and Alaska newspaper man, and Miss Dudren Sudersen, formerly of Fairbanks, were married here. They will leave on a six months' honeymoon trip to California. Miss Sudersen is known to Northern Alaskans as a bright newspaper woman. They expect to make their home in Fairbanks.

WINNIPEG — The strike committee announced its decision to end its long lay-off after a lengthy session at Labor Temple last night. The strike will be called off at once. The government announced that an investigation commission headed by H. A. Robertson, K. C., would be named to inquire thoroughly into the general strike. It was intimated that it had been the intention of the government for some weeks to appoint this commission.

WINNIPEG — General sympathy strikes throughout Canada have been called off. Workers returned to their places this morning at 11.

VICTORIA — After eluding capture for 13 years, Simon Gunetnoot, a noted Indian renegade against whom there are two charges of murder, was delivered today to the Provincial Police at Hazelton by George Beirness.

WASHINGTON — A resolution interested the House yesterday, providing for the taking of testimony in the Alaska delegate contest, thus giving Wickersham the right, if the resolution passes, to contest Grigsby who will be seated.

CHICAGO — The Tribune shows that only 40 senators favor the League of Nations in its present form while 43 favor it with changes.

VALLEJO — Orders to speed up work on all vessels for the proposed Pacific battleship fleet has been received.

EL PASO — An aeroplane for the use of Brigadier-General Erwin who has been sent here from San Antonio.

GENEVA — The Swiss army is being demobilized.

BREST — The transport Porto has arrived from Archangel with 1360 men of the 339th Infantry.

WASHINGTON — The Senate accepted the committee amendment appropriating $300,000 instead of $100,000 for the maintenance and construction of roads in Alaska.

There was an enjoyable dance at Redmen's hall Saturday evening given by the North Star Orchestra and the Triangle. The music was excellent and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The net proceeds amounted to $64. A portion of this amount will be used for the purchase of a flag and the remainder turned over the Fourth of July committee.

Miss Katherine Bronson left on the Hazel B No. 4 Tuesday morning for a round trip to Telegraph Creek.

WASHINGTON — Testifying before the Senate Appropriation Committee, J. L. MacPherson on behalf of Secretary Lane testified $16,475,000 would be needed to complete the railroad in Alaska. He pointed out that the completed railway from Seward to Fairbanks would cost only $73,000 a mile and explained in answer to a question from Senator Underwood that an appropriation of $12,000,000 will be needed for the present fiscal year.

WINNIPEG — Excitement reigns throughout the city as a result of a battle between strikers and the city provincial police. One striker was killed and a score injured. Martial law was declared Sunday but was lifted again yesterday. Few federal soldiers aided the civil authorities. That new steps are being taken by the strikers to bring their wants before the people is evident by Saturday's demonstration and a tighter police patrol of the city is made in order to stop a recurrence.

EVANSVILLE, Minn. — One of the most destructive tornadoes that has ever visited this section of the country brought disaster and loss of life here today. Buildings were wrecked, trees uprooted and everything in its path destroyed. Up to last account the total number killed was 47, and 160 injured who are lying in the local hospital. The value of property destroyed is estimated at over six million dollars.

The first bear story of the season has arrived. A man living on the trail near Donnelly recently went out to get a load of wood and ran face to face with a big brown bear (they are all big to the beholder) which struck at him, the wind from the blow tearing his shirt off. His partner had to clip his hair to get his hat off as it had stood up so straight the hairs had stuck through and clinched.

They have a character at Fort Yukon named "Jump-Off Bill."

M. L. Woodard, sales manager for the Gulowsen Grei Engine company of Seattle, arrived in Wrangell Monday on the Admiral Evans. Mr. Woodard is making a scouting trip for the purpose of locating agencies in Alaska. Mr. Woodard is no stranger in Wrangell. He formerly travelled for a Juneau concern and visited this region regularly.

C. W. Hawkesworth, superintendent of this district for the U. S. Bureau of Education was a Wrangell visitor while the Admiral Evans was in port last Monday. Mr. Hawkesworth was en route to Metlakatla.

A little girls' gymnasium class, ages 6 to 12, will start Tuesday, July 1st, at St. Philip's gymnasium at 2:30 p. m. Parents interested will please speak to Miss Katharine Bronson before that time.

All school children are requested to be at the schoolhouse promptly at 9:30 the morning of the Fourth to march in the parade.

Miss Florence Lowe of Juneau arrived on the Admiral Evans Monday. She had been on a pleasure trip to Sitka and other towns, and returned to Juneau on the City of Seattle Tuesday morning.

Hugh R. Chilberg returned to Seattle on the Princess Alice after a short visit in Wrangell. His wife, before her marriage was Miss Ann Sylvester of Wrangell.

Mrs. L. G. Traver was a passenger on the City of Seattle to Petersburg where she will visit for a few days.

Twenty-five hundred fish were landed in town yesterday from the Sunny Point Packing company trap at Ship Island. Most of the cannery men look for a good season. — Ketchikan Times.

The poll tax in the Yukon is now due and payable. The tax is $8 per year for every male person over the age of 18.

Collection of War Souvenirs

The Sentinel reporter this week had the privilege of looking over a collection of European war souvenirs brought home by Nicholas Nussbaumer.

The first article to attract our attention was the Croix de guerre with which he was unofficially decorated by a French officer at a banquet which he attended in Leon, France.

Next, we picked up a German iron cross, at the same time asking where it came from. Mr. Nussbaumer replied: "I gave a captured German soldier a sack of Bull Durham for that. He had been decorated less than a week before his capture."

There was a collection of shells from British, French, German and American machine guns. But the article which presented a more warlike appearance than any of the others was a 67 millimeter brass shell 10 inches long and as large in circumference as an ordinary quart measure.

At Newport News on May 25 a remarkable photograph was taken of the 12th company, 20th Engineers. There is not a soldier in the company who could not be recognized instantly in the picture by anyone knowing him. Mr. Nussbaumer considers this picture of his comrades a priceless possession.

Silas P. Silverman, son of Sam Silverman, the well known miner and booster of Alaska, is in Ketchikan arranging to outfit his camps on mining claims in the Portland Canal district. Mr. Silverman will leave tonight on the Taku with his first load of supplies for Portland Canal.

Mr. Silverman is also working for the promotion of his Salmon River mining interests. He has the famous Yellowstone group of claims and expects to have fifty men at work there within the next 30 days. — Times.

Notice

The second payment of 10% on Victory Liberty Bonds will be due and payable at Federal Reserve Bank, San Francisco on July 15th. This payment should be made at Bank of Alaska, Wrangell, not later than July 5th, to allow time for mailing draft to San Francisco. If payments are not made promptly, interest will be collected to the next payment period at 4% per cent.

A Dam Picnic

The Fkdo Club enjoyed an outing at the city reservoir last Sunday. A campfire was built and dinner eaten under the shed remaining from the days when the dam was being constructed. The climb up the trail had so sharpened the appetites of those in the party that the abundance of good eats seemed even better than usual.

Miss Nellie May Taylor visited Wrangell friends Monday while the Admiral Evans was in port. Miss Taylor has been teaching in Prince Rupert under date of June 11. He states that things are very unsettled in Rupert as nearly every one there is on a strike. Mr. Eastman is considering coming back to Wrangell.

Jedd P. Fuller, publisher of the Pacific Builder and Engineer of Seattle, was in Wrangell this week. Mr. Fuller is taking a vacation from newspaper work, and while visiting Alaska, is working in the interest of the International Encyclopedia.

C. P. Mitchell of Seattle was in Wrangell this week. Mr. Mitchell is a business man of the spirit city, and is making a tour of Alaska.

BETTER MAIL SERVICE FOR WRANGELL

Post Office Inspector P. L. Neill was aboard the Admiral Evans Monday returning from a tour of inspection as far to the westward as Kodiak.

While the vessel was in port the Sentinel reporter approached Mr. Neill for news. The Inspector said: "I am going to recommend a gas boat mail service between Petersburg, Wrangell and Ketchikan to supplement the steamer service. There are several of the larger boats which do not call at Wrangell and Petersburg. A gas boat service between the three towns would considerably improve the mail service of Wrangell and Petersburg as well as the West Coast. The proposed service contemplates the gas boat leaving Petersburg southbound every Tuesday night and leaving Ketchikan northbound every Thursday morning." The Inspector has recommended that such a service be started on October 1, and continued until April 1. The plan as outlined will be a great improvement over the present system.

Commenting further on local conditions the Inspector stated that the Post Office Department greatly appreciates the efforts of Postmaster Stedman and the cooperation of Steamship Agent Lee McCormack, which enables Wrangell to have a better mail service at present than would be possible if these two gentlemen did no more than is required in order to hold their positions.

Since the Postal Department has been shipping its mail by freight it has been necessary to get the mail into the dock warehouse before 5 o'clock in the afternoon, if a vessel was sailing that night. Postmaster Stedman has made a regular practice of visiting the post office at 9 o'clock in the evening wherever there was a steamer before 9 o'clock the next morning. At such times he would gather up all letters that had been posted since the mail closed in the afternoon and take them to the dock and open up the mail pouch for them thus clearing up all first class mail posted up to 9 p. m. Mr. Neill stated that this special service is greatly appreciated by the Post Office Department for the reason that it is not obligatory on the part of the local Postmaster.

Deputy U. S. Marshal H. J. Wallace was aboard the Admiral Evans Monday en route from Juneau to Portland on official business. Mr. Wallace stated that he hoped to return to Wrangell on the Admiral Evans with her next sailing from Seattle.

The publisher of the Sentinel received a letter this week from Harry Eastman written from Prince Rupert under date of June 11. He states that things are very unsettled in Rupert as nearly every one there is on a strike. Mr. Eastman is considering coming back to Wrangell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Heckman left Saturday afternoon on the Northwestern to make a three months' tour of Alaska. They will visit the interior and all coast cities and also go to the westward. They expect to be gone for four months. — Times.

Nick Nussbaumer is back at the Willson & Sylvester sawmill in the position of foreman. Mr. Nussbaumer was employed by the mill for several years prior to his enlistment.

CANADA IS AGAINST TITLES

The Daily Ontario: With the signing of peace we are likely to have another grand title-shower. That supreme occasion will furnish too excellent an excuse to be over-looked by the title-giver and title-seeker. Garters and ribbons galore will be scattered broadcast. What an ideal opportunity for the Canadian people to show its sympathy with new world-democracy by declaring definitely against the bestowal of any more titles on Canadians. Canadians are fed up on this title business. The broad masses of the people of this country are distinctly hostile to any further "honors" that tend to build up anew a class distinction that has been considerably leveled by the war. More and more Canada is becoming a country where a man stands on his own feet. Personal achievement now counts for more than the degree of "blue" blood in the veins of one's grandmother. One's pedigree doesn't matter so much now as does "making good."

It was also a plank in the platform of the Agricultural Council of Canada. For many years it has been demanded by labor. In some cases a title is honestly earned by service to the nation, but the great majority are secured by political or social pull. And as those who really deserve a title are invariably too big to care about it or need it, why not end the whole thing once for all by cutting out the cheap imitations of "barons," "knights," and the like. The Canadian people know well how to honor their great men without sending to London for a title. As for the others, they exasperate with their parading and ostentation, helping to foster the unrest of which we have at the present time more than is consistent with safety. To abolish titles in Canada has become a necessary move, and, barring certain snobbish circles at Ottawa, Toronto and Montreal, which would be jarred to their centers, it would be a popular move.

Labor Union Is Rapidly Gaining New Members

KETCHIKAN—Officers of the Ketchikan branch of the Alaska Labor Union have been kept busy the past week sending out membership cards.

The delegates are very active in organizing at Craig, Hydaburg and Klawock.

The Ketchikan Local has doubled its membership in two months and now has more than 1200 members.

The Petersburg local, just organized, has 100 members and is growing rapidly.

Fishermen are beginning to gather for the meeting of seiners. It will be held in the Alaska Labor Union hall tomorrow afternoon.

Many Natives Dead

SEATTLE—W. T. Lopp, of the United States Bureau of Education has received a cable from Dr. L. H. French, in charge of the Native Hospital at Nushagak Bay, that 160 natives succumbed to the influenza in the past ten days, around Bristol Bay and Unalaska.

For the shave and haircut of satisfaction go to Ed Grigwire's shop, opposite drug store.

Miss Lillian D. Hill of Fairbank recently broke into print in Seattle by describing her adventurous trip over the Fairbanks Valdez trail. It reads like a nightmare and is a good description of what might have happened if the story had been true. "Midnight, 32 below zero, a 120 pound girl and a 180 pound insane woman, alone on a glacier, both in their nighties, with only their winter coats thrown over them, the nearest cabin within sixteen miles and God visiting in Europe." This is the phantasmagoria experienced by this young lady, and she might have made it worse by importing another crazy and a couple of more glaciers.

Miss Kathryn Seller, a graduate of Carleton and Westchester, Pa., is the principal of the Aleut school at Akhiok, Kodiak island.

A Fairbanks man has a pair of young bear cubs which he is offering for the small price of $35. Any person desiring to take advantage of the falling bear market should correspond with City Clerk Sanderlin.

Prof. Robert F. Griggs, director of the Katmai Exploring expedition for the National Geographic Society recently delivered a lecture at Kodiak on the volcano and showed pictures taken from the valley of the Ten Thousand Smokes. The hall was crowded to the doors.

Two men recently killed three bears and saw five more within sight of the town of Valdez.

Many caribou have been seen lately in every part of Klondike camp.

The body of a half-breed baby was found at a lonely spot at Cordova recently. When found, the infant had been dead for three days and had died from neglect.

Mrs. Mavis Hukill, of Skagway, fell four hundred feet while climbing a mountain near that place last Sunday. She suffered several bruises about the head and eyes and was taken to a hospital, where it is thought she will soon recover.

At the present time living expenses are lower in Cordova than any other town in Alaska. The merchants are cutting and slashing prices of groceries. In addition to this a tobacco war is in progress which has caused an astonishing reduction in the price of smokes and chews.

To Make Appeal for Funds

An appeal to American people for funds to carry on the work of their American Red Cross will be made next November, according to the following statement issued today by Livingston Farrand, Chairman of the Central Committee, who says:

"Appalling conditions in countries of Eastern Europe imposing on the American Red Cross obligations additional to those assumed during the period of world war and continuation of activities in connection with the already outlined domestic program of the American Red Cross" makes necessary an appeal to the people of America for further funds to carry on work for the relief of humanity."

It has been decided to make this appeal in the autumn in a period of two weeks culminating the 11th of November, the anniversary of the signing of the armistice, a season when American people may properly give manifestation through contributions to their American Red Cross, of their thankfulness for deliverance from the added horrors of war which have fallen upon nations less fortunate.

He is an old timer—been in Alaska for 21 years—and just back in the States. He was visiting the Goodrich Factory and we asked him, of course, if he ever used our Goodrich "Hi-Press" Boots and Shoes while he was up there, and he said—

"Say, those are some shoes you people make. Why, I remember one time when my partner and I went over the hills and I wore a pair of your Goodrich White Pacs. He didn't! And he wore out six pairs before we got back—I still wore my first pair."

There's the result of making Goodrich Rubber Footwear the new way,—IN ONE SINGLE PIECE—rubber tough as steel—no leaking, no peeling, no half-soling. And they're comfortable—feel like old shoes before you've worn them 24 hours.

We make all kinds,—shoes, boots, shorts and hip, for mining, fishing, logging, prospecting, etc. They always have "The Red Line 'Round The Top."

New Boat for Chicago Mine

JUNEAU—The Chicago Mining company's new boat "Ambassador" will sail from Seattle about August 15th when the president and other officials of the company will come north in the boat from Tacoma, where the boat is being built.

The new boat will be 121 feet long with a 22-foot beam. She will be equipped with 360 h. p. Diesel engines, and will carry about 150 tons of freight. She will have ample stateroom accommodations, as well as comfortable quarters for officers and crew of about 14 men.

The new boat, which will be named "Ambassador Hugh Wallace", will be used on the run between Juneau and the mine, but in case of emergency she can be run to Seattle or Tacoma.

Law and Liberty

The last of the patriotic lectures at St. Philip's Church will be delivered Sunday evening, June 29, at 7:30 p. m. Anarchy and autocracy are always comrades. Law is the schoolmaster that leads to liberty.

This is a special sermon in preparation for Independence Day. Only through Christ and his Church can liberty be maintained. Come and help.

How Advertising Pays

There is no longer any argument as to the value of advertising for the man who has something to sell. It has more than proved its worth. Business success is now generally accepted as founded on advertising, the more successful the business. It is still worth while, however, to call attention to the value of advertising from the point of view of the man who wants to buy. Advertising renders a service to the customers no less important than that which it renders to the dealer. In these days of technical methods and large scale production it is a physical impossibility that a purchaser should know, at first hand, all the features and details that enter into manufactured articles. He has to gain this information by short cuts—and here advertising helps him. The advertising of a manufacture tells him clearly and concisely just how that manufacturer's product differs from others; what its special merits are, and for what purposes it may best be used. Whether the purchaser wants a

THE BANKER

To blow in wealth I sometimes banker, on projects labeled "Get rich quick," but ere I blow. I see the banker, who hits these projects with a brick. I am an easy mark I know it; gold bricks appear to me all right, and men with bait come up and show it, and strongly urge that I shall bite. But long ago I made some pledges; I vowed I'd never pay the price of josses, wooden hams or wedges, without the bankers same advice. Thus I've escaped a thousand dangers, and fills too dark for tongues to tell; I've baffled scores of oily strangers who had pink polar bears to sell. I buy no gold mines in Nebraska, no odds how hard the agent tries; I buy no orchards in Alaska, because the banker puts me wise. He is my refuge and my anchor, when I'm inclined to make mistakes, the good old cautious banker, what sizes up the snares and fakes.

PLAN REGULAR BOAT SERVICE FOR TAKU RIVER

Regular boat service between Juneau and the Taku River country will be an established fact within the next three weeks, when Capt. William A. Strong and A. H. Humphries expect to have their new river launch Nakina in service. The Nakina is now out of the hands of her builders, the Alaska Drydock and manufacturing Company, and will be towed at once by the Inklin to Taku Harbor, where her engine will be installed. The 60-horsepower gasoline engine of the steamer Cassiar will be used, as the Cassiar is out of service on account of its extreme draft. The Nakina will draw only eight inches of water, and is fitted with universal joints for raising the propeller in shallow water.

The Nakina is fifty feet long and of thirteen-foot beam and will have accommodations for a dozen passengers and eight tons of freight. Capt. Strong and Mr. Humphries say they expect to have their boat in commission the early part of July. Cash Cole is the local agent for the new transportation company.—Empire

Furthermore, advertising is of great value to the man who buys with a close watch on the values his dollars return to him. By consistently following the advertisements in his daily paper he is able to buy what he needs at prices that often mean considerable savings over the usual costs.—Times.

Taking advantage of this good weather Ensign Carruthers and George Cowan went to Petersburg yesterday in an open boat.

The Columbia & Northern shipped 18 boxes of king salmon, 3 boxes of halibut and 32 tierces of mild cured fish on the Admiral Evans.

Professor E. R. Wilcox accompanied by his wife and baby daughter arrived on the Jefferson yesterday to join John T. Towers on Kupreanof Island. Mr. Wilcox will spend the coming summer making an economic geological survey of the island and vicinity.

It is a well known fact that fish stories have a habit of growing, so it was not surprising to read in a contemporary newspaper this week that Frank Spalding of Wrangell recently caught 1,336 red king salmon and 350 white salmon in a single night's fishing, receiving $164.46 in payment for them. This item was taken from a recent issue of the Sentinel and is correct except that we stated that Mr. Spalding caught 1336 pounds of red king salmon and 350 pounds of white salmon.

America's Immortals

Most striking instances of gallantry for which the Distinguished Service Cross has been awarded

It was a difficult task to select from the thousands of acts of unusual bravery performed by American soldiers in France a few that stood out above all others. General Pershing's staff undertook the task, however, so that the most exceptional cases might be given the publicity they deserve. Below are the stories of the feats that won for some of the American fighters the coveted Distinguished Service Cross.

HARRY GROVER O'CONNOR,
Sergeant, Headquarters Detachment, Personnel Office, 78th Division.

Sergt. O'Connor was decorated for conspicuous bravery in action near St. Juvien, France, October 15, 1918. Sergt. O'Connor volunteered and went from his division headquarters to one of the regiments in line to obtain much needed information and to arrange for liaison. He covered the distance of six kilometers through shell fire three times before the unit was found; and, while returning with the information, was seriously wounded by a shell which mortally wounded two companions. He gave water and first aid to the two men and dragged himself down the road until he met a soldier whom he sent for an ambulance. After reaching the hospital and having his wounds dressed, he left the hospital without the knowledge of the attendants and delivered the information to his division headquarters in person.

RICHARD H. HILTON,
Sergeant, Company M, 118th Infantry.

Sergt. Hilton was decorated for conspicuous gallantry at Brancourt, France, October 11, 1918. While Sergt. Hilton's company was advancing through the village of Brancourt, it was held up by intense enfilading fire from a machine gun. Discovering that the fire came from a machine gun nest in a shell hole at the edge of the town, Sergt. Hilton, accompanied by a few other soldiers, but well in advance of them, pressed on toward this position, firing with his rifle until his ammunition was exhausted, and then with his pistol, killing six of the enemy and capturing ten. In the course of this daring exploit, Sergt. Hilton received a wound from a bursting shell which resulted in the loss of his arm. Sergt. Hilton's home is at Westville, S. C.

WILBUR E. COLVER,
Sergeant, Company A, 1st U. S. Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry in action near Verdun, France, October 9, 1918, Sergt. Colver was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. Volunteering, with two other soldiers, to locate machine gun nests, Sergt. Colver advanced on the hostile positions to a point where he was half surrounded by the nests, which were in ambush. He killed the gunner of one gun with a captured German grenade and then turned this gun on the other nests, silencing all of them before he returned to his platoon. He was later killed in action. Sergt. Colver lived with his father, William H. Colver, at 202 Helen avenue, South Ozone, L. I., N. Y.

BERGER LEMAN,
Private, Company H, 132nd Infantry.

Private Lemman was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action near Consenvoye, France, October 9, 1918. When his company reached a point within 100 yards of its objective, to which it was advancing under terrific machine gun fire, Private Lemman voluntarily and unaided, made his way forward, after all others had taken shelter from the direct fire of an enemy machine gun. He crawled to a flank position of the gun and after killing or capturing the entire crew, turned the machine gun on the retreating enemy. His mother, Mrs. Anna Lemman, lives in Chicago.

SIDNEY HOLZEMAN,
Private, Machine Gun Co., 132nd Infantry.

Private Holzman was decorated for extraordinary heroism in action in the Bois de Foret, France, October 10, 1918. After six runners had been killed or wounded in attempts to get through heavy shell fire with an important message from the regimental commander of the 39th Infantry to the regimental commander of the 56th Infantry, Private Holzman, with Private James J. Snyder, responded to a call for volunteers, and succeeded in delivering the message.

LLOYD M. SEIBERT,
Sergeant, Company F, 364th Infantry.

Sergeant Seibert was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action near Epinonville, France, September 20, 1918. Suffering from illness, Sergeant Seibert remained with his platoon and led his men with the highest courage and leadership under heavy shell and machine gun fire. With two other soldiers Seibert charged a machine gun emplacement in advance of their company, he himself killing one of the enemy with a shotgun, and capturing two others. In this encounter he was wounded, but he nevertheless continued in action, and when a withdrawal was ordered he returned with the last unit, assisting a wounded comrade. Later in the evening he volunteered and carried in wounded until he fainted from exhaustion. His father, George Seibert, lives in Salinas, Cal.

JOSEPH W. SMITH,
First Lieutenant, 116th Infantry.

Lieutenant Smith was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action near St. Eusaint, France, September 12, 1918. Finding that his platoon would be under heavy fire from six enemy machine guns in crossing the Rupt de Mad, Lieutenant Smith plunged into the stream ahead of his men, and crossing to the opposite bank, exposed himself to fire from the guns in order to ascertain their exact location. He then led his men in a flank attack on the enemy position, capturing the guns and nineteen Germans; this officer himself carrying a rifle and using it with telling effect. Lieutenant Smith's quick judgment and disregard for personal safety enabled the entire line to advance without being separated from its barrage. His mother, Mrs. Rita L. Smith, lives in Austin, Tex.

MATEJ KOKAC,
Sergeant, Company C, 5th Regiment U. S. M. C.

Sergeant Kokac (deceased) won the Distinguished Service Cross for gallantry in action near Soissons, France, July 18, 1918. When the advance of his battalion was checked by a hidden machine gun nest, Sergeant Kokac went forward alone, unprotected by covering fire from his own men, and worked in between the German positions in the face of fire from enemy covering detachments. Locating the machine gun nest, he rushed it, and with his bayonet drove off the crew. Shortly after this Sergeant Kokac organized 25 French colonial soldiers, who had become separated from their company, and led them in attacking another machine gun nest, which was also put out of action.

THOMAS E. O'SHEA,
Corporal, M. G. Co., 107th Infantry.

Corp. O'Shea was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action near Le Catelet, France, September 29, 1918. Becoming separated from their platoon by smoke barrage, Corp. O'Shea, with two other soldiers, took cover in a shell hole well within the enemy lines. Upon hearing a call for help from an American tank, which had become disabled thirty yards from them, the three soldiers left their shelter and started toward the tank, under heavy fire from German machine guns and trench mortars. In crossing the fire-swept area, Corp. O'Shea was mortally wounded and died of his wounds shortly afterward. He lived in Summit, N. J.

JOHANNES S. ANDERSON,
First Sergeant, Company B, 132nd Infantry.

Sergt. Anderson was decorated for conspicuous gallantry in action at Consenvoye, France, October 8, 1918. While his company was being held up by intense artillery and machine gun fire, Sergt. Anderson, without aid, voluntarily left the company and worked his way to the rear of the nest that was offering the most stubborn resistance. His advance was made through an open area, and under constant hostile fire, but the mission was successfully accomplished and Sergt. Anderson not only silenced the gun and captured it, but also brought back with him twenty-three prisoners. His home address is Chicago.

HERMAN DAVIS,
Private, Company I, 113th Infantry.

Private Davis, whose home is with his mother at Big Lake, Ark., won the Distinguished Service Cross for unusual bravery in action at Molleville farm, France, October 10, 1918. While acting as company runner Private Davis single-handedly attacked a German machine gun nest which was harassing the left flank of the company and preventing its advance. He killed four of the enemy and captured the gun, thus allowing the company to continue forward.

JOHN CALVIN WARD,
Private, Company D, 117th Infantry.

Private Ward was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action near Estrees, France, October 8, 1918. During an advance Private Ward's company was held up by a machine gun which was enfilading the line. Accompanied by a non-commissioned officer, he advanced against this position and succeeded in reducing the nest by killing three and capturing seven of the enemy and their guns. His mother, Mrs. Laura Ward, lives in Morrisstown, Tenn.

CHARLES D. PRIEST,
Chaplain, 358th Infantry.

Chaplain Priest (deceased) was decorated for extraordinary heroism in action near Les Haut Chemins, France, September 20, 1918. Chaplain Priest disregarded personal danger by going six hundred yards beyond the front line, and with the aid of a soldier, carrying back a wounded man to shelter. Chaplain Priest's home was at 830 North La Salle street, Chicago, Ill.
